

Dear PCI Stakeholder:

I have good news.

Our job as the PCI Security Standards Council is done.

After weeks of meetings with the card brands, key banks and transaction processors, we have determined that our job is complete and the Council will disband by June 30, 2015.

It has been a pleasure to work with you all even though it has only been so very brief.

Best of luck in your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Stephen Orfei, General Manager

-Your partners in payment security